

MAINE VOTE CLOSE; LEANS DEMOCRATIC

City Districts Turn Tide from Apparent Republican Victory.

MOOSE STRENGTH A THIRD OF T. R. TOTAL

Hinds Wins Hot Contest in First District—McGillucuddy Re-elected.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14.—Returns from the cities of Bangor and Portland just before midnight showed the tide in the Maine election had changed from an apparent Republican victory, though the result will not be certain until fifty missing towns have been heard from.

The standing with 460 towns and all the twenty cities was as follows:

Republican (R.), 54,958; Curtis (D.), 57,813; Gardiner (P.), 18,622.

The corresponding vote for President in 1912 was: Taft (R.), 24,860; Wilson (D.), 48,467; Roosevelt (P.), 4,671.

These returns show a Republican gain of 125 per cent and a Democratic gain of 18 per cent. If the same percentage is maintained Curtis will gain 60,000 votes, while Taft will lose 10,000.

With more than half of the Maine cities and towns reported the result of the election in Maine was not yet known, not only for Governor, but in one or two of the four Congressional districts.

The early returns indicated the election of Mayor Curtis, a Republican, but after the first hundred towns had been received the drift shifted from Curtis to Governor Haines, the Republican candidate, and from 800 towns out of over 600, the indications were that Haines would have a plurality of something like 4,000 votes.

Up to this point Governor Haines had shown a gain of 154 per cent over the vote for Taft two years ago. Curtis had shown a gain over the Wilson vote of 15 per cent, and the Progressive loss from the Roosevelt vote was 63 per cent. If this proportion held for the rest of the state, it was figured that the total Progressive vote for the state would be a trifle over 18,000.

Congressman Asher C. Hinds, Republican, was re-elected to-day, according to complete newspaper returns, by a plurality of 699. The vote was 17,017 for Hinds, 16,318 for J. S. Bates, Democrat, and 2,311 for Walter C. Emerson, Progressive.

Congressman Daniel J. McGillucuddy, Democrat, was re-elected by 5,500 plurality over Harold M. Sewall, Republican, of Bath, according to unofficial returns from all but five small towns in the 2d District. The vote was 10,884 for Sewall, 16,319 for McGillucuddy and 6,281 for Alton C. Wheeler, Progressive.

STIMSON WARLEY PRAISES HIMSELF

Former Candidate for Governor Comes Out in Favor of Senator.

Henry L. Stimson, who ran for Governor on the Republican ticket in 1910, favors the nomination of former Senator Harvey D. Haines. He makes this statement in a letter to Representative Charles S. Hamilton, given out last night at the Haines headquarters.

"I shall vote for Mr. Haines," writes Mr. Stimson. "I have been a supporter of him for many years, and I have reached the conclusion that he is the best qualified candidate for Governor and head of the Executive Department of this State. I have reached this conclusion after a careful study of the merits of the candidates, and I believe that Mr. Haines is the man who will best represent the people of this State."

Mr. Stimson is a former candidate for Governor in 1910, and was defeated by Governor Haines. He is now a member of the Senate.

HENNESSY GETS MITCHELL SUPPORT

Mayor Censures Tammany and Murphy—To Aid F. D. Roosevelt.

Mayor Mitchell came out openly yesterday and threw his support to John Hennessey in the Hennessey anti-Murphy fight. When this news was told to two enthusiastic audiences by the anti-Murphy candidate for Governor last night they shouted their approval.

"Finally this open record shows Mr. Hennessey to have been identified with the liberal movement in his party. Those of us who believe that the Republican Party is the only party that can save this State from the grip of the Tammany machine and the influence of the moneyed interests, we are glad to see that Mr. Hennessey is now in the front ranks of the party."

In part Mayor Mitchell's letter to Mr. Hennessey read:

"Your candidacy for Governor and that of Franklin D. Roosevelt, as the nominees for United States Senator, would be open to the anti-Murphy Democrats of the state the prospect of a clean and militant leadership. I am a non-partisan Democrat of New York, and intend to continue a strictly non-partisan administration of municipal affairs. I am, however, a Democrat in my party. As an independent Democrat opposed to Charles F. Murphy, I wish you and your colleagues, Mr. Roosevelt, success in the coming primary."

On the platform with him at the Yorkville Casino Mr. Hennessey had several representatives of the Wilson administration, besides the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, including Mayor William Jennings Bryan, and John K. Sage, Appraiser of the Port. Augustus Thomas presided.

"The question before us is this," said Mr. Hennessey. "Shall we continue to be a Democratic party in this state a chattel of Mr. Murphy and his personal property to do with as he will? If we are beaten in the primaries we propose to fight within the Democratic party until such time as we can release the struggle from the grip of Mr. Murphy from its throat."

Mr. Hennessey said that if he was beaten in the primaries it would mean the defeat of the Democratic ticket in November.

Franklin D. Roosevelt spoke before the Central City Committee of the Jeffersonian Alliance last night at the Hotel McAlpin, and practically defined the alliance as a Democratic party with Wilsonian democracy, while he placed the regular Democratic organization of New York State, under the leadership of Charles F. Murphy, entirely outside the pale of national democracy.

Ogden L. Mills Now Candidate of Both Parties in 17th Senate District.

DISAGREE ON CITY AND SUPREME COURT

Time for Substitution of Declinations Expires To-night at Midnight.

Fusion between the Republicans and the Progressives on all the Congress, Senate, Constitutional Convention and two on the City Court failed. The time for substitution of declinations expires to-night at midnight. Two minutes after midnight the declination of Martin Manton, Democrat for Representative in Congress from the First District of New York City, was received, but Henry Adams, the filing clerk, refused to accept it. Whether the declination will be put in force or not will probably be put up to the Secretary of State to-day. The only other declination filed was of John De Witt Warner, Hennessey candidate for delegate-at-large to the constitutional convention.
